ORFF AND MOFFIT TO BE ON UM SUMMER FACULTY

MISSOULA--

Two distinguished visitors will join artist-teachers from the resident music faculty in presenting workshops, clinics, seminars, and regular summer courses at the University of Montana School of Fine Arts, according to Donald W. Simmons, chairman of the Music Department.

The first summer session runs from June 17 through July 17, and the second, from July 13 through Aug. 16, Dr. Simmons said.

Gertrud Willart-Orff, lecturer in the Department of Therapy and Pedagogy at the University of Munich, Germany, will give a workshop in the Orff Schulwerk approach to involving children in creative musical expression. The workshop will be in session June 17 through 21.

William Moffit, professor of music and director of marching bands at the University of Houston, Tex., and author of the widely used Moffit Marching Band System, will give a Marching Band Clinic Aug. 5 through 7.

Special offerings by regular UM faculty members are a flute clinic June 26-28 by Mary Jean Simpson, Armstrong flute clinician; a workshop in "Comprehensive Musicianship" June 17-28 by Dr. Joseph A. Mussulman and Donald A. Carey, and a seminar, "Corollaries in Song and Speech," by John Mount and David M. Fisher, June 17-July 17.

The UM summer music program also includes a variety of regular courses which, like the special offerings, carry graduate or undergraduate credit. In addition, the Montana Chamber Orchestra, directed by Eugene Andrie of the music faculty, will be open by audition to teachers and others who qualify, including a limited number of students in the Montana High School Fine Arts Camp, which will be in session June 17-July 3.

Orff and Moffit to be on UM Summer Faculty, page two

Orff is a founder of the Orff Schulwerk Institute, an independent organization that works with universities. She gives workshops and clinics throughout Europe and the United States in the Orff Schulwerk Method, which was developed in Germany by her former husband, Dr. Carl Orff. She is a composer, particularly for piano, and the author of Orff Schulwerk Studies in Speech and other books. She works extensively with physically and emotionally handicapped children.

Moffit left the faculty of Michigan State University, East Lansing, to join the faculty of the University of Houston at the time the Houston Astrodome was built. Since then, he has been in charge of extravaganzas presented in the Astrodome. He has published a number of marching band arrangements for football shows. He often serves as an adjudicator, a clinician and a workshop director in the United States and other countries.

Inquiries about the UM summer music program should be addressed to Dr. Donald W. Simmons, Chairman, Department of Music, University of Montana, Missoula 59801.
